The screenshot shows the SearchSolver interface in Mozilla Firefox. The browser address bar displays `http://ssolver.ovid.com/muse/servlet/MusePeer`. The page header includes the logo of the Politecnico di Torino and the text "POLITECNICO DI TORINO".

The "Search For" section contains three search input fields, each with "As: Keyword" selected. Below the input fields are search options: "And", "Or", and "Not". The "Group Terms Like:" section shows the selected option `(Term1*Term2)*Term3 (Term2*Term3)` and a "Search" button.

The "Language:" dropdown is set to "English". On the left side, there are buttons for "Search Options", "WorkRoom", "My Account", and "Logoff".

The main content area displays a list of electronic resources, organized into sections:

The screenshot shows the SearchSolver website interface. On the left side, there is a vertical menu with four buttons: 'New Search', 'WorkRoom', 'My Account', and 'Logoff'. The 'My Account' button is circled in red. To the right of this menu is a 'Personal Account Login' section. It contains a heading, a paragraph of instructions, two input fields for 'Ovid Personal Account Name' and 'Password', and a 'Login' button. Below the login section, there is a note about creating a new account and a copyright notice at the bottom: 'Copyright © 1998-2007. All rights reserved.'

The screenshot shows the SearchSolver website after a user login. The user is identified as 'Maddalena Morando'. The 'Search Options' and 'Searched Sources' tabs are visible. The 'Searched Sources' tab is active, displaying a table with columns for 'Source Name', 'Hidden', 'Group Name', 'Source Name', and 'Default'. The table lists various sources and their default status.
